

Literacy

Comma: punctuation indicating a pause within a sentence, or to separate items in a list

Chronological Report: A report about an event which is written in the correct order.

Prefix: A group of letters added to the start of a word which changes the meaning- e.g. adding un- to happy changes the meaning by creating unhappy.

Suffix: A group of letters added to the end of a word which then changes the meaning e.g. adding -less to hope changes the meaning by creating hopeless.

Numeracy

Product: the result of two numbers being multiplied together

Factor: the numbers which are being multiplied

Sum: The result of adding two numbers together

Dividend: the number that will be divided

Divisor: the number the dividend is shared by

Quotient: the answer to a division equation

History

Invasion: an instance of invading a country or region with an armed force

Conquer: overcome or take over a place by military force

Cause: the reason why an event has happened

Consequence: the impact a significant even or person has had on us today

Source: someone or something that supplies information

Reliability: how trust worthy or believable a piece of information is

Science

Fair testing: a test which controls all but one variable to answer a scientific question

Variable: an element, feature or factor which is changed or adapted

Prediction: using prior knowledge to make an educated guess what will happen

Pattern seeking: observing what has happened and seeing if there are patterns or links

Making links:

Geography

Human geography: the study of people and their communities, cultures, economies and their interaction with the environment

Physical geography: the study of natural features in the environment

Archibald First School

Year 2 Spring Term 1

The Romans Glossary

Key Dates

6th January: Teacher Training Day

29th January: Y2 trip to Segedunum

11th February: Class 5 Assembly

13th February: Class 6 Assembly